TRAINING and CONDITIONING

The training fee at Snowberry Farm Training Center is $300.00 per month for Halter. Performance is $450 per month. The boarding fee for the winter months, if so desired, is $150.00 per month. A one month training fee is usually required as a deposit to hold a stall space. (Deposit is non-refundable and will be deducted against the final bill).

Training and conditioning includes an individualized work-out and feed schedule. Each horse has a separate stall, daily turn-out time, fresh water and stall mats.

SHOW FEES

Entry fees, stall fees, AMHR/ASPC charges, bedding, etc are the actual costs that are incurred and are to be prepaid prior to the show. Supply and tack/feed stall costs are divided among the clients at show. There is a per show charge of $250 per horse which covers grooming, ring prep, and class presentation.

For Regular Shows – there will be a fuel-charge. (i.e. $200 divided by 3 farms = $66.00) . A daily-care-fee will be billed during each show.

NATIONAL (CONGRESS) SHOW FEES

A single fee of $800 (limit 2 horses) and the show fee of $250 per horse will be charged per family for attending the National Show (or Congress), Tulsa, OK. This is a Flat Fee of $1000, which includes transport, grooming, all products, blades used and presentation in all rings. A daily-care-fee will be billed.

Entry fees, stall fees, AMHR/ASPC charges, bedding, etc are the actual costs that are incurred and are to be prepaid prior to the show. Supply and tack/feed stall costs are divided among the clients at show.

It is the Client's Responsibility to purchase insurance covering the show horse during the training at SBF. We take every precaution, but are not responsible should an accident occur.

Special rates available when purchasing a Snowberry Farm horse to be left in training.

Catch-Handling at Nationals: $100/class
